

'I'M HAPPY!'

Minister Ready for Jail After Mann Act Conviction.

ZION, ILL. (AP)—Expressing the belief he was "the happiest man this side of Heaven," the Rev. Finis Dake bade his flock goodbye Sunday and prepared to start a six months' jail term in Milwaukee, Wis., for violation of the Mann act.

From the pulpit of the Christian Assembly church, the Rev. Mr. Dake explained his jubilation was caused by his renewed contact with divine authority. He blamed all his troubles on the ill will of the devil.

The 33-year-old married minister admitted in federal court last week that he took a 16-year-old girl from her home in Kenosha, Wis., on several clandestine trips into Illinois.
