BIBLE MARATHONER TO PRISON.

The Rev. Finis Jennings Dake Sentenced Under Mann Act.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 9.—The Rev. Finis Jennings Dake was sentenced to six months in prison here today for violation of the Mann act.

The Bible-reading marathon champion's pulpit eloquence previously convinced both his wife and his Christian assembly congregation at Zion there was nothing wrong when he journeyed to East St. Louis, Ill., with a 15-year-old girl. He didn't try that eloquence on Federal Judge F. A. Geiger today. Instead, the preacher pleaded guilty.

The prison term, to begin Monday, will be served in the Milwaukee house of correction, thus interrupting for the first time Dake's regular Sunday sermons which he has continued ever since charges were brought in 1935.
